“ Condolencias para toda la familia, especialmente Ross, querida amiga, lamento mucho esta difícil situación, dolor y vacío indescriptible.
Nadie mejor que nuestro Creador entiende los sentimientos que afrontas, en Isaías 41:10 te asegura:
"No tengas miedo, porque estoy contigo. No te angusties, porque yo soy tu Dios. Yo te daré fuerzas. Sí, yo te ayudaré. Con mi mano derecha de justicia, de veras te sostendré "

Nada puede impedir que Él cumpla sus promesas.

Reciban un fuerte abrazo

“ These next couple of days are going to be tough. Adrian was my brother-in-law.

Adrian was one of a kind. In person, he was everywhere. You could hear his laugh from anywhere in the room. Everyone loved the guy! But he was always hard to keep up with. He didn't really care too much for social media. So if you tried to keep tabs on him that way, you were out of luck. He was always on the move for work. He'd check in from Utah, Pennsylvania, Canada, or right down the road in Orla. On his time off, he would sometimes get a chance to fish, hunt, or catch him watching the Cowboys or Astros. But his favorite thing to do was spend time with his kids and family. The man had the biggest paws I've ever seen on a human. One of my favorite memories is when Oscar, Adrian, and I were building a fire in my backyard and when we were running out of firewood. Adrian asked me if a tree I had in the back was dead. I said, "Yeah, it probably won't green up again." The next minute, he was pulling the tree out roots and all with his bear hands. The biggest, strongest, most caring guy you'll ever meet.

I'm going to really miss you, Adrian.

Thank you for being my brother.

“ Adrian had an easy way with people, a laugh that could light up a room, and a head of hair I was always jealous of.

But more than anything, he had a genuine and kind heart—always checking in, checking up, and reaching out. He was the kind of friend we should all aspire to be. A truly good man.

In life, you don't need a lot of friends—just the right ones. And Adrian was one of the best.

Like everyone lucky enough to have known him, I am better for it, and I will miss him tremendously.

My heart goes out to all his loved ones and especially his mother and his three children. I can't begin to imagine your loss, but I hope you find comfort in knowing how deeply he was loved and what a lasting impact he had on so many.
