

Amelia Sailors

August 18, 1952 - February 4, 2026

Amelia Sailors, age 73, passed away peacefully on February 4th, 2026 in Odessa, Texas. She lived a life defined by love, resilience, and deep devotion to her family.

Amelia is survived by her loving husband, Larry Sailors, her son Gabriel Pacheco, and her two cherished grandsons, Benjamin and Eyan. She is also survived by her sisters Estela Tenorio, Rachel Primera, and Pamela Jimenez, who shared a lifetime of memories and unbreakable sisterhood with her.

She leaves behind a large and loving extended family, including five nephews, five nieces, eight great-nephews, and six great-nieces, all of whom were touched by her warmth, generosity, and steady presence. She is also survived by her brother-in-law, Dale Sailors, and her sister-in-law, Prima Browder.

Amelia will be reunited in eternal rest with her mother, Modesta Primera, and her sister, Amanda Torres, along with other loved ones who passed before her.

A memorial service to honor Amelia will be held March 30, 2026, at 2:00 PM at American Heritage Funeral Home.

Amelia's legacy is one of quiet strength, compassion, and a heart that welcomed everyone. Her presence will be deeply missed, and her spirit will continue to live on in the family she nurtured and the lives she touched. She is forever in our hearts.
