

Amy Wai-Ling Timmons

November 14, 1974 - December 8, 2025

Amy Wai-Ling Timmons, 51, of Houston, Texas, passed away on December 8, 2025, at her home. She was born on November 14, 1974, in Gary, Indiana, to John Edwin Timmons and Kin Chun Timmons.

Amy was strong-willed, determined, and fiercely goal-oriented. If she set her mind to something, she made it happen-failure simply wasn't an option. Her career in oilfield sales took her to West Texas, where she quickly became a leader in her field. Confident in her abilities and in the potential of others, she supported the people around her with unwavering belief.

She was a devoted pug lover, a woman who laughed loudly-often at her own jokes-and someone who filled every room she walked into. With her unapologetic honesty, bold personality, and social nature. Amy had a big heart, even if she sometimes had trouble showing it, and those who knew her best understood the depth of her care.

Amy is survived by her daughter, Kayla Kathryn Woods (Nicholas Carker) of Houston, Texas; her mother, Kin Chun Timmons; her brother, Christopher Edwin Timmons (Erin) of Houston; and her nephews, John Timmons II and Elijah Timmons. She is preceded in death by her father, John Edwin Timmons. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

WF

“ With condolences to family and friends. purchased the Fiery Lily and Rose for the family of Amy Wai-Ling Timmons.

With condolences to family and friends. - December 17, 2025 at 01:02 PM

WF

“ With condolences to family and friends. planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Amy Wai-Ling Timmons.

With condolences to family and friends. - December 17, 2025 at 01:02 PM

TC

“ Amy joined the Hayata team in 2023 as our US Account Manager for Fracking Bands. I was impressed by her energy and knowledge of the industry, and she did a great job in building our sales in the fracking industry – first from her home office in Houston and then in Odessa. When someone is so energetic and full of life, it is hard to believe they have passed. We will be processing this for quite a while. I will miss her enthusiasm and jokes (good and bad). She was strong-willed and sometimes a challenge to manage – how do you manage a stampede? She had a good heart and was a good person. I will miss her. My sympathy to her family and friends in this difficult time.

Tom Crouch - December 15, 2025 at 08:19 AM

TR

“ I was lucky to work with Amy, supporting her during her time with Hayata. Whoever wrote her obit did a great job of summarizing her. She was a force of nature in a petite package working in a rough and tumble male-oriented market. She had the strongest handshake of any woman I have ever known. I last saw her at the PBIOS show in October. There she entertained me with the story of how she loved her Hibiscus plant so much she would take it with her on sales trips to make sure it got watered. That night she sent me a picture of it that I have included. She managed that flower like everything else – with a lot of gusto and enthusiasm to achieve the desired result. She noted with the pic this was the fourth bloom she had coaxed out of this plant. I want to express my condolences to Amy’s family. She was VERY unique and I know you will greatly miss her, as we all do.

Tom Rice - December 12, 2025 at 12:06 PM