I believe this was my uncle Tony, brother of my mother, Ann Guerry (nee Samuelson). I loved my Uncle Tony and best remember him for the time we ran into him (or, he ran into us) at the grocery store in Midland. We had just been hunting and we gave him some meat. A very nice man!

My brother was a good man and always tried to do what was right. As an older brother he always tried to be there to support friends and family, and held no malice towards anyone. Though life was not easy on him, his wit, sense of humor, and general love of life was always displayed to those who knew him. He has and will always be with me as I continue my journey and I know I will see him again. love you brother. John
