“ I was at the service today and I can't imagine your pain. The message was one of comfort. I taught at Ector Prep her first week of school. Meeting Azaria brought me so much joy. Always a hug, a smile and a compliment. The last time we spoke we were talking about shoes. I told her I liked her shoes and she said, "Guess who bought me these shoes???" I said, "Who?" She smiled and said, "My mommy! I love her!"

“ From the time you were born you were a fighter you were such a beautiful lil girl I will never forget that deep little voice. When you use to see me you would ask me where the kids were at or were Maine was.. You touched so many hearts... You will never be forgotten... You were a angel to us all
