

Baby Evan Lee Parson

June 7, 2025 - June 7, 2025

With broken hearts and everlasting love, we share the passing of our precious baby boy, Evan Lee Parson, who was born and passed away on June 7, 2025, at Midland Memorial Hospital in Midland, Texas.

Evan was lovingly welcomed into the world by his parents, Evan Parson and Tracy Ann Macias, and though his stay was brief, he filled their hearts with a lifetime of love. He was a perfect little soul-pure, beautiful, and deeply cherished.

Evan is survived by his parents, Tracy Macias and Evan Parson; his siblings, Kameron Barrera, Roman Barrera, and Evan Parson Jr., who were all ready to hold his tiny hands and kiss his little cheeks. He is now cradled in heaven by his great-grandparents, Eddie Mae Parson and Lee Arthur Parson, who will watch over him until the family is reunited one day.

A graveside service to celebrate Evan's life and spirit will be held on Thursday, June 12th at 10:00 AM at American Heritage Cemetery. Friends and family are invited to gather in love and remembrance.

Though Evan's time here was short, he brought an abundance of joy and left a footprint on our hearts that will never fade. Our little angel will be remembered always-for the love he gave, the dreams he inspired, and the light he brought with him.

"Sometimes, the smallest things take up the most room in your heart." - A.A. Milne

“ Gone but not forgotten. I love you baby with all my heart forever. baby boy , I miss you so much. It hurts I can't stop crying and thinking of you. My eyes will always search for you in the sky. My heart longs for finding you in the heavens. Half Of My Heart Is Gone baby boy I wish I could wake up and hold you. Then I would know that it was just a nightmare. I promise to never forget you <3 xoxo RIH Evan Lee
