

Barbara Mae Reynolds

January 19, 2026

Barbara Mae Reynolds, 70, of Midland, Texas, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on January 19, 2026 surrounded by family.

Barbara was born on February 8, 1955, in El Paso, Texas, to Lee Roy and Mary Estelle (Hardin) Stewart. She married the love of her life, Leslie Ray Reynolds, on June 30, 1973, in Midland, Texas, beginning a devoted marriage that spanned more than five decades.

Barbara was a radiant gem, radiating kindness, creativity, and joy, inspiring all who knew her with her remarkable spirit. With spontaneity and love, despite her own struggles she lived life to the fullest, touching hearts and leaving a lasting legacy. Her passions for puzzles, painting, and gardening ignited happiness and wonder, as she found solace in the artistic journey. Exploring with Les in their motorhome was another delight, embracing each new experience with an open heart. Yet, her greatest passion shone brightest in her devotion to family, pouring love and dedication into those she cherished most. As grandma, her heart overflowed with boundless joy, reveling in the love and connection. Barbara's warmth, infectious humor, and vibrant personality forever changed the lives of everyone she met. Her faith and love for family stood strong, the very foundation of her life, as she proudly celebrated the accomplishments of her husband, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Les Reynolds; her sons, Cody Reynolds and wife Alicia, and Chase Reynolds and wife Chasity; her seven beloved grandchildren, Matthew Stewart and wife Stephanie, Kayley Reynolds, Kimberly Reynolds , Madisyn Reynolds, Brooke Reynolds, and Bristol Reynolds; two great grandchildren, Liam Stewart, Zaylee Stewart and her brother, Ronnie Stewart. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lee Roy and Mary Estelle (Hardin) Stewart, and her sister, Patricia Ann Glasgow.
