“ Farewell Terry, from his sister, Judith.. Terry was named after a Cartoon character, Terry and the Pirates by our mother, Mary Crane Gurley. He was actually supposed to be named after his father, William. When mom told dad to go register his name, dad told the nurse Bill, of course that's what everyone called my dad instead of William. So that was the name put on his birth certificate.

Terry was a great musician, he was the most incredible flutist I have ever heard. He could play any instrument. but slowly lost those skills as life interrupted the music.

Goodbye my brother, I will miss you. See you on the other side.
