

Brenda Joy Harlan

December 18, 1940 - January 24, 2025

On January 24th, 2025, Joy left us to join Tom.

Brenda Joy Harlan was born on December 18th, 1940, to Lawrence Harry and Georgia Jamerson Harry in Bailey County. She was the fifth of six children. Her family moved to San Angelo when she was 4, then to Midland, Texas, in 1952. Joy graduated from Midland High School in 1959. She went to work for Commercial Bank, where she met and fell in love with her husband of 56 years, Tom Harlan. He passed away in July 2020. In 1969, they were blessed with a precious son. Tom worked for Amoco and was transferred to Andrews, TX, in 1978. In 1980, Joy decided to join her family on the golf course, which led to many fun golf vacations spent playing as a family. After Tom and Joy retired, they moved back to Midland, bought a house on Green Tree Golf Course, and enjoyed several more years of golf.

Joy is survived by her son, Chris Harlan, and his wife, Tess. She is preceded in death by her parents, one brother, three sisters, and her loving husband. What a great reunion they will have.

There will be a celebration honoring the life of Brenda Joy Harlan at Green Tree Country Club, 4900 Greentree Blvd, Midland, TX 79707, at 1:00 PM on Sunday, February 23, 2025.

“ Joy, my sister-in-law-law, lives on in my memory as a kind and witty woman. She and my brother were inseparable in life, and I am happy now they can be together again. She'll be happy to see her little dog, Trixie, too.
