My special thoughts for my younger brother, Byron Lee Cook II, go out to him. Families are very special & priceless & everyone needs to stay in contact more often than not. I do wish we could have hugged & laughed together before it was too late. We were inseparable & always playing together when we were kids, three years apart. I will always Love you, little brother, your loving sister, Linda.

“ I met Byron in 1994 at Nationwide Homes in Midland when I went to work there. He was a hard guy to get to know but eventually we became friends. He made me laugh a lot and I'm so sorry I'm just now finding out he's gone. He marched to his own drummer but deep down he was a good man. I'm so sorry to his family and for their loss.
