

Carrie Beth Bonham

September 22, 1970 - December 9, 2025

Carrie Beth Bonham, 55, of Pecos, Texas, passed away on December 9, 2025, at Odessa Regional Medical Center.

Carrie was born on September 22, 1970, in Odessa, Texas, to Clay and Caroll Sue (Bates) Henson. She graduated from Odessa High School and later earned her degree from Sul Ross State University. She went on to work as a special education teacher for 32 years, a job she truly loved. She cared deeply about her students and always stood up for them.

Carrie was known for her kind heart, strong faith, and great sense of humor. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Pecos, where she found her second family. After the COVID pandemic began, she started a Zoom Bible study and never missed a session. Her faith was a big part of her life, and she loved sharing it with others.

She was a daddy's girl growing up and became best friends with her mom after her dad passed. Carrie had a generous spirit and was always giving-whether it was volunteering, spending time with her nieces and nephews, or taking the little ones out for ice cream. She had a courageous heart and a warm, funny personality that made everyone feel welcome.

Carrie is survived by her mother, Carol Sue Henson, and her brother, Chris

Henson and his wife Katie. She is also survived by her nieces and nephews: Courtney and Arthur Navarrete, Caitlin and Larry Sparkman, Christopher "Bubba" Henson (Adalis), Brandon and Amy Henson, and Brayden Henson. Her grandnieces and grandnephews include Brenna, SJ, Cooper, Nessye Mae, Keelie, Kylie, Baylee (Carter), Colton, Brooklyn, Rylee, Presley, and Archer. She was also blessed with a great-great nephew, Wylder..

She was preceded in death by her father, Clay Henson, and her brother, Clay Henson Jr.

Carrie will be remembered for her love, faith, and the difference she made in so many lives. She gave her best to her family, her students, and her church- and she will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
