“ My very unique , hippy girl daughter. Im so glad that Carrie and I, along with you children and friends, and your loving hubby, were able to spend the time with you as you made your way , to your heavenly home. no more fear of falling, breaking a bone or getting even more ill and losing control and wondering which part of your body would be affected. You are no longer in pain but you are still loved by so many people. Will be missed by so many. I know you have a loving family waiting for you that went before you. I , along with your sister Carrie, made the lovely necklace in the photograph, Im glad you wore it. You make it look good , love always, Madre

“ My sister, my friend, I'm so glad to have shared my life with you. I love you and always will. I know I will begin to heal in time. Sister I'm proud of the strength and fight you had to fight for so long. The illness took you over. But, you are completely healed now. I will miss our talks. When we were down all we had to do was call the other one and we would lift each other up or sometimes being each other down. But we were in it together. I love you so very much.
