“ In researching the history of my city and its settlers, I found that Clara Marie lived here as a young girl and her father built their house here before he died. I have wondered often about the Hartell family and am sorry that she is gone before I had the chance to meet her and hear about her life. May you rest in peace, Clara Marie.

“ Clara was my mother's best friend. When Mother passed away, Clara and I sort of adopted each other. From that day forward, we shared many chats and played countless hours with her precious dog, Tea. Clara was one of the kindest, most generous human beings I've ever known and taught me so much about life. She saw and survived a lot in her 99 years but my, how she lived! I will miss her so much but am comforted in knowing she is with her family now and no longer alone. Rest in Peace, my dear friend.
