

Cynthia Helen Aquilina

January 9, 1968 - February 10, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Cynthia Helen Aquilina, who left this world peacefully on February 10, 2025, at 2:35 AM. Her life was a journey filled with both challenges and cherished moments.

She was funny, smart, and outgoing, with a personality that could light up a room. She had a sharp wit, a bold spirit, and a way of making people laugh even in the toughest moments. Cynthia was unapologetically herself, and it was that authenticity that drew people to her. She was loved not because of the life she lived, but because of the person she was-genuine, vibrant, and unforgettable.

Cynthia leaves behind her loving children, Anastasia, Symantha, and Jack Steven, who will forever carry her memory in their hearts. She was a proud grandmother to Dakota, Paislee, Mattison, Connor, Violet, Aiden, and Ella Rose, and a cherished great-grandmother to Kaizer and Beckett, whose presence brought her immense joy.

She is also survived by her siblings: Richard (wife Suzanne), James (wife Chris), Frank (wife Tonya), and her sister Anastasia. Cynthia was blessed with a large, loving family that includes many nieces and nephews, all of whom held a special place in her heart.

Cynthia is now reunited in heaven, dancing freely with her beloved parents, Richard and Louise, finding peace and light in their embrace.

Though her journey on earth has come to an end, Cynthia's memory will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be remembered, missed, and honored in our own unique ways.

"In the end, we are all stories. Make yours worth remembering."

Tribute Wall

WC

“ Cindy was my girlfriend for more than 15 months at Focus Care @ Hogan Park nursing home in Midland. We loved each other very much. She had severe health problems and was in a lot of pain. Losing her really hurts. In heaven she is healthy, out of pain and without her wheelchair. God bless her and her family.

William Cross - March 28 at 11:52 PM

WC

I will always miss her. There is a hole in my heart where she'll always be. Love you Cindy 🌹

William Cross - April 04 at 08:35 PM

WC

You kept me in line just by giving me "the look". I was the last man you were with. We had a lot of laughs and capers. Love you baby 🥰

William Cross - April 04 at 11:03 PM

WC

I enjoyed playing guitar for you and buying your vape pods

William Cross - April 09 at 10:05 PM

AM

“ For My Mom

Today, I'm left with a lot of emotions that are hard to put into words. Our relationship was complicated, and there were reasons I had to create distance—to protect my own peace, my heart, and my growth. Those choices weren't easy, but they were necessary.

Even though we weren't close, you were still my mom. That connection, no matter how distant, is something I'll carry with me. I've made peace with the space between us, but I also recognize the sadness that comes with knowing there's no more time to change it.

I hope you've found peace now. I hope, wherever you are, you've found healing that maybe we couldn't find together. Goodbye, Mom. I'll carry the lessons—both the good and the hard—with me as I move forward.

Anastasia Morrison - February 11, 2025 at 10:30 PM

AM

I love you mom

Anastasia Morrison - February 11, 2025 at 10:45 PM

JA

“ This is the most accurate description of my sister I have seen yet, my condolences to her children and grandchildren. My sister..... She was truly “ wysiwyg” “what you see is what you get”. This besides her love and her surprising wit and awesome humor is what I appreciated the most. R.I.P. Cynthia

James Aquilina - February 11, 2025 at 03:32 PM

RA

I am EXTREMELY impressed with the person who wrote her obituary. Like my Brother said, "it is the most accurate description" of my Sister. Thank you for your tribute to her, and yes, she'll be missed tremendously.

Rich Aquilina - February 11, 2025 at 03:44 PM

AM

Thank y'all ❤️ I had some help with wording

Anastasia Morrison - February 11, 2025 at 04:37 PM

BS

Awesome job

Bobby V. Slaughter - February 11, 2025 at 07:45 PM