

Cyrus Blaise Ochoa

January 15, 2026 - January 15, 2026

Cyrus Blaise Ochoa was born and passed away on January 15, 2026, at Odessa Regional Medical Center in Odessa, Texas. Though his time with us was brief, he was deeply loved and will be forever remembered.

Cyrus was the beloved son of Edward Jesus Ochoa and Anna Lucia Villarreal. From the moment they knew of him, he was a source of joy, hope, and unconditional love. His arrival was awaited with open hearts, and his memory will live on in theirs.

He is survived by his parents, Edward Ochoa and Anna Villarreal; his brothers, Javen Flores, Evan Flores, and Izayah Flores; his sister, Syrinity Rangel; his grandparents; and numerous loving family members who were all eager to welcome him into the world. Each carries a special love for Cyrus that time will never fade.

A viewing will be held on Thursday, January 22, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at American Heritage Funeral Home. A funeral service will follow, with Deacon Ricardo Torres officiating.

Though he was here only a moment, Cyrus left a lifetime of love.
