

Domingo V. Romero

May 5, 1943 - August 16, 2015

Domingo Romero passed away August 16, 2015 at the age of 72. He was born on May 5, 1943.

He is survived by three children, Albert Romero, Floyd Romero, and Elaine Garay and six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Domingo was a Golden Gloves Boxer, an accomplishment of which he and his loved ones were very proud of. He acquired a passion for bluegrass music after watching the movie O Brother Where Art Thou. He was also an avid writer of poetry. Writing poetry brought him a sense of peace and happiness that he was eager to share with others. He had a way of telling stories with such excitement about his boxing and younger days that brought laughter and joy to those he was sharing them with.

His family will always have great memories of him whether it was him sharing his past or enjoying a meal with him during the holiday season. He will always be in our hearts and in our thoughts.

Viewing will be held Wednesday, August 19, 2015 beginning at 9:00 a.m. A funeral service will be held Wednesday, August 19, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. at American Heritage Cemetery and Funeral Home.

“ I met Domingo when he asked me to proff read some of his poetry. He also told me that he was pretty much self taught. I had a lot of admiration for him in his writings and enjoyed proofing the same. I wanted to teach him the computer and he was excited about it, but then he chose to move and I didn't get a chance to work with him on the computer. I think, he could have written so much more having a computer. His belidf in God was inspiring, He will be missed. Sheila L. Cook, Social Worker, Desert Gardens
