

Doyle Edgar Brown, Jr.

July 14, 1966 - July 24, 2021

Doyle Edgar Brown Jr., 55, of Odessa, TX passed away on July 24, 2021 at Medical Center Hospital in Odessa, Texas. Doyle Edgar Brown Jr. "Patch" was born on July 14, 1966, to parents Doyle Edgar Brown Sr. and Virginia F. Brown Mitchell. He entered eternal rest on July 24, 2021, in Odessa Tx. He was a hard-working strong man. He worked on a drilling rig as a derrick hand his whole life. He loved his work. He loved to listen to music and two-step almost as much as he loved to work the derrick. He was known for the way he said, "hey Gal". He loved his family dearly. He met his unmarried wife Cindy Stamps at a very young age. He loved her deeply and they shared a love for two-step and listening to music together. He was the un-biological father to three children. The love he had for his un-biological son was very deep. If you did not know you would not know that wasn't his biological son. They shared an amazing connection and a one of a kind of love and respect for one another. He loved dogs, sometimes more than his family. He was brave, strong, adventurous, and little crazy. He was always on the move. He was known as the wild, crazy man with one eye aka "Patch". He was loved by few and hated by many, there was no in between.

Doyle was preceded in death by father, Doyle Edgar Brown Sr., mother, Virginia F. Brown Michell, grandmother, Bertha E. Yarberr, nephew, Jacob Fox Stanfill and un-biological daughter, Latasha Sims. He is survived by sisters, Ginger Stanfill and Penny Radford, Unmarried wife, Cindy Stamps, un-biological son Michael Thomas Hennington II “Mikey” and Brittany Suber, un-biological daughter Lacy Morgan and husband Wesley Morgan, nephews, Dusty Stanfill and Josh Goad, nieces, HaLeigh Pilkerton, Jennifer Mack and Brandi Radford, un-biological niece, Miranda Aycock. Doyle also leaves behind my other family members, lifelong friends and adopted dog Taz.
