Emma Muela

Born into love, March 5, 2025

Though Baby Emma's time with us was brief, she was cherished beyond measure. From the moment her existence was known, she was loved deeply and awaited with open arms.

She is survived by her devoted parents, Emanuel and Veronica Muela, and her loving brothers, John Ball and Julian Gamez. Though she never took a breath in this world, she left an everlasting imprint on the hearts of those who longed to hold her.

"We loved you from the very moment we knew of your existence. You are dearly missed, our angel. We love you so much, our little Emma." - Mommy and Daddy
