“ Gary was the first friend my Dad made at Legacy Ranch Memory Care in Midland. They walked the halls working on “The Project”. One day, possibly in April of this year, I was having a difficult time with my Dad there. Gary was on a bench nearby, when he suddenly had the most clear look in his eyes, as he looked directly into mine with such a kind expression, and said, “You have a heavy load to carry, I can see that.” I said, “It sure feels like it.” And then he was ‘gone’ and rambling about me getting tax information. He was always working... But that one sentence was real, and from his heart, and I will never forget that! God spoke through him, and those kind words meant the world to me. Thank you, Gary! I’ll see you in Heaven! In the meantime, I bet you’ve got quite a Project going up there!
