“ Jason and I went to the police academy together. We hung out for a couple of years after we graduated and then I lost contact with him after I moved to Colorado City. I was stunned when I heard of his passing. Jason was a great guy. I hated that I lost touch with him and now I regret it even more. Rest in peace and I will see you on the other side my friend. ~ Jeff Dever

“ Jason was handsome, intelligent, razor-sharp witty and he could charm the birds right out of the trees, if he chose to do so. The only child of Wade and Nona, he was the light in their eyes and the song in their hearts. He was loved by many, even if he didn't realize it. He will be missed but live on in our memories of him. May God bless him and keep him and heal the broken hearts of all who grieve for him.

With love,

Aunt Pam

“ I've known Jason for about 34 years. He wore many hats in those years but most of all, he was a true friend. He lived only a short distance from me and I'm sorry to say that I didn't see much of him & Laura but when we would run into each other, it seemed as if we had been in touch regularly. Jason always had a smile on his face and had something good to say. I cherish the memories I have of the time our families spent together when our children were young. Life was not always kind to Jason but he was kind to those in his life, Even when life happened, and things changed, I still considered Jason a friend and his actions said he felt the same way. I remember how he just couldn't be still when he got excited about something and how his eyes would light up. It was fun to watch him be filled with the excitement of a child on Christmas morning. Jason was a great man and he will be missed. Love to and prayers for the family.

“ I Love Jason and Laura. I remember the day Jason came to play bingo with us at lunch time it was so fun we laughed and had a good time. I also remember Jason, Laura and I went to look at small houses to fix up and build and they gave me great ideas on how to personalize my home. And then all three of us went to dinner, it was fun. I enjoyed Jason talking about politics. He knew how to put a smile on your face. I miss you Jason. I Love you my friend.

He really valued your friendship, Jeff! Thank you. I am his daughter. My mom is Linda and she told me how you guys used to be good friends!

Erin Meador - March 15, 2016 at 08:57 PM

Jason was a wonderful husband to my sister and a total amazing friend to all that met him. He was a bright light to our family and will be remembered always. Rest in peace in the arms of our Lord.
