“ Jenny and Billy and Richard were always together at my house or Beverly's house. When they were in high school. Jenny was so so sweet and we loved her so much. I pray for the family and will continue to do so especially for her baby girl. Gods speed Jenny.

“ Jenny, my small but boisterous childhood friend,
I remember on the bus you would eat Doritos, and at sleepovers you always wanted pepperoni pizza. I remember watching The Mannequin with you, and your love for cats. I remember those fingernails if I made you mad. (It's funny now.) As adults we stayed in touch via social media and spoke of having lunch or dinner. I wish that had come to pass. I am thankful that recently I was fortunate enough to see you and to give you a hug, one I cherish immensely.
I remember years back you shared two Christian songs with me and they remain in my playlist today. You've left us too soon but you are at rest now and your sweet girl will be loved and prayed for by many. Love you, Jenny!

“ My dear Jennifer, although I did not have an ounce of the same blood as you, You welcomed me with open arms as part of your family. You were over joyed and so happy I got to come out with my Alysa to visit you all in Tx. The hugs I received were heart felt and those screams of joy as I walked along side my daughter to see the family after we arrive from the airport I will never forget .. These memories I will hold dear to my heart. Thank you for being so loving at all times towards me and my Alysa.. For now it’s Good night until we meet again.. Rest In Peace now sweet Jen.
