“ Jim, I will miss you so much, you always kept me laughing. You helped me so much at work. I remember you saying we'll get those extinguisher s delivered and try not to let them go off. Lunch was always tomato sandwiches. I'll see you my friend. Lisa

“ I met Jim at my husbands job. I just loved this man i would joke around with him and flirt with him all the time and his face would turn red we laughted about that all the time. Jim i know you are at home and at peace with God and your family playing that guitar. We will miss you greatly but you will never be forgotten. Prayers to the family from the Wood family William and Donna.

“ Jim was always a sweet kind, and quiet man. I always loved working with him, he taught me alot and always help me when I needed information about the stuff he worked on. He smiling face was always a welcoming sight and I could always count on him to be there in the mornings when I got to work. This last year and half has been different without see him and knowing he is gone makes me sad, but I know he is with his Lord. May he forever play the guitar in Lord's band now.
Sincerely Nancy Williams

“ Jim, you were always kind to everyone at work. I never heard a negative word. I miss our talks and our smoke breaks together. I will always remember you as the man with the welcoming smile, kind and respectful. We will watch over your son, Rickey, as we are all family here at Leek. Fly high, Jim, as I know you have gained your angel wings.

Sincerely, Tina Gresham
