

Jimmy Bustillos

February 27, 1982 - July 30, 2023

Jimmy Bustillos, a beacon of love and care, passed away on Sunday, July 30, 2023. Those fortunate enough to know him were touched by his genuine kindness and generosity.

He would go out of his way to assist anyone in need, his heart ever ready to give. A talented artist, Jimmy had a fondness for diamond paintings, painting, and paper mache, pouring his soul into each masterpiece. He was a devoted fan of the Dallas Cowboys, rooting for them through every high and low. Beyond sports, he held a special place in his heart for the TV show 'The Mayans' and was passionate about WWE wrestling, a joy he loved to share with his nephews.

He is remembered with love by his 7 nephews, 6 great nephews, a niece, and 3 great nieces. Jimmy is preceded in death by his brother, Joseph James, sister, Erma Sutton, brother, Jerry James, and father, Lorenzo Gonzalez.

He leaves behind cherished memories with his brothers, Edgar James and Irving James, sister, Paula Bustillos, and his loving mother, Hazel Gonzalez, affectionately known to many as 'Momma'.

A service to honor and remember Jimmy's life will be held at American Heritage Cemetery Funeral Home Friday, August 11, 2023 at 2:00pm. In our hearts, Jimmy's spirit lives on, and his legacy of love, compassion, and creativity will continue to inspire those who were blessed to know him.

“ Someone I considered a brother. School or childhood wouldn't have been the same without him. It's still unreal to know your not here anymore. I love you man. See you on the other side. -Mundo
