

Joan I Obukohwo

May 16, 1979 - August 26, 2021

Joan I Obukohwo, 42, died unexpectedly on August 26, 2021, at Midland Memorial Hospital. She was born May 16, 1979, to Francis Otubor(father-Deceased) and Grace Idemudia(mother). Joan graduated from Baptist Secondary School; after that, she met the love of her life John Obukohwo who she married on February 8, 2003, and Had Four children. Hilary writes: I knew I was going to write one of these days, but I never expected it to be this early, I dreamt of writing it in my old age, but they say God knows best. My mum, My love, My twin. Joan Obukohwo was the most hardworking person I have ever met; she knew how to scold, how to love, how to bless the air with her fresh laughter, a very outspoken woman. My mum was the best chef ever created, and her cooking was without error; my gisting partner was always ready to listen. I remember the last time I saw her and I hugged her funny I didn't know it would be the last. My love, my mum, my mummy Mama guguru, please rest in peace, and I would always love you. Husband writes My sweetheart, as I usually called you.

The news of your demise came to me like a shock. My love, you worked so hard to give the family a better life. You paid the ultimate prize to enable the children to have a better tomorrow. You were bold, confident, and outspoken. Never afraid of what to say no matter whose ox is gored. You were a beautiful woman, charming and kindhearted, always willing and ready to render help. The wife of my youth, my friend, confidant, the mother of my four children, my one and only wife, my soulmate, my sweetheart, my life partner, my love hmmm... I loved you beyond your wildest imagination. Sweetheart, you meant well for my children and me. I thank you for all that you did for us. We are grateful. I love you with all my heart. I missed you and will always miss you till we meet again to part no more. I love you, my beautiful wife; rest on, darling. May God forgive you of all your sins and show you mercy, may the angels welcome you to his heavenly kingdom and grant you eternal rest. Amen
