“ "Life" and the "miles apart" made it difficult to see each other as often as we would have liked, but "Family" was important to Uncle Joe! He traveled to special family gatherings and funerals. Often he had to "round-trip" the same day, but he was "always here" on these occasions! I honor him for that! I remember as a child the "Light Family" gathering at the Community Center at Cherry Park in Weatherford, Texas on Christmas evenings. Dominoes and "42" would be the entertainment for my Dad, Uncle Joe & their Brothers. Great times! Uncle Joe liked golf & was good at it. He challenged me several times, and lets just say that my pocketbook was always the one that was a little lighter afterward. Love you & will miss you Uncle Joe. "Fairways & Greens Uncle Joe, Fairways & Greens"!!
