

Johnnie Mae Holmans

December 31, 1941 - October 11, 2015

Johnnie Mae Six Holmans, beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, went home to be with her Lord and Savior, October 11, 2015 in New Braunfels, Texas after a lengthy fight with cancer. Johnnie Mae was born to Jon I and Reva Mae Six on December 31, 1941 in Kermit, Texas. She married the love of her life, George Edward Holmans on May 15, 1958.

Johnnie received her masters in cake decorating at the Wilton School of Cake Decorating and Confectionary Art in Chicago, Illinois. She retired with her husband to New Braunfels, Texas. Johnnie was an avid quilter, an active member in the New Braunfels Conservation Society, a member of First Baptist Church in New Braunfels and was known by her family as the "BEST" red velvet cake maker in Texas. She loved family, friends, and always looked forward to Spring Break fishing trips with her family.

Johnnie is preceded in death by her parents, Jon I Six and Reva Mae Hodges Six; siblings, Elmer V. Six and JoAn Six Phillips; son in law, Gary Ford; great grand-babies, Wynter Gail and William Gray Ford.

She is survived by her husband, George Edward Holmans, of New Branfels, Texas; daughters, Stephanie Holmans Ford, of Odessa, Debbie Holmans Abbot and husband, Alan of Zainesville, Ohio; son Glenn Edward Holmans and wife, Katrina, of Frankston, Texas; six grandchildren and their spouses; eight great-grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and extended family members and friends.

Viewing will begin at 9:00 a.m., Wednesday, October 14, 2015 at American Heritage with the family receiving visitors from 6-8:00 p.m. Services will be held at American Heritage Chapel, Thursday, October 15, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. with Wayne Maas officiating. Burial immediately following at American Heritage Cemetery.

Arrangements are entrusted to American Heritage Cemetery and Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.thehealingstartshere.com
