

Jonathan Wayne Williams

December 1, 1954 - May 12, 2024

Jonathan Wayne Williams, 69, of Odessa, TX, passed away peacefully at his home on May 12, 2024. Born on December 1, 1954, to Wayne and Willowdene Williams, Jon spent his entire life in Odessa, Texas, where he made a lasting impact on those around him.

Jon is survived by his beloved spouse, Jo Lynn Williams; his two sisters, Dene Williams and Lisa Moon (John); and his cherished nieces and nephew: Glyna Williams-Montemayor, Alyson Dominguez, Elise Moon, and Ruth Ellen Bridges (Rocky). He also leaves behind his great-nephews and great-nieces: Kieryn Nunez, Heighlyn Nunez, Magdelyn Nunez, Seraphyn Nunez, London Amaratunga (Ryan), Aiden Dominguez, Madrid Dominguez, Zachary Mauzey, and Myla Moon Bridges.

Jon was a servant to others, always available and dependable whenever someone needed him. His eccentric personality and genius intellect made him a beloved figure in the community. He was deeply committed to his faith and served as the pastor's right-hand man, demonstrating his love for God through his actions. Jon's unwavering love for his family and dedication to helping others will be remembered and missed by all who knew him.

In this time of sorrow, we find comfort in knowing that Jon's spirit will continue to inspire us. His legacy of kindness, service, and love for his family and community will endure.

Tribute Wall

MC

“ I am a member of the church Jon attended. Today, for a split second I said to myself, "I have to hurry and go give Jon a hug." He will be so missed. My daughter Marlee (14) broke down when I told her. He touched everyone he came into contact with.

Your in my prayers,
Michelle Cox

---

Michelle Cox - June 02, 2024 at 04:27 PM

DD

“ He was such a wonderful man, always ready to listen, he had a quiet peace that is very rare. He will be missed.

---

Dania D - May 18, 2024 at 08:32 AM