“Kathie meant so much to so many, such a good friend to anyone who had a problem, a question related to faith and to anyone who needed a prayer. She had so many friends but when you talked with her, you felt like you were the only one because she gave that much of herself to you.

I had the privilege of knowing Kathie before she even started going to my elementary school, Our Lady of Jasna Gora, in Clinton, MA. Her mother (Mary Giard) would visit my grandmother's next door neighbors, the Arnolds, and we would play together when we were both there visiting. Kathie and I then went on to high school together, St. Mary's in Worcester, MA. We strengthened our faith there with the help of our friend, Andrea Jeanne , who brought us to healing services after school with Father DiOrio at St. John's down the street from school. It was our first experience with a charismatic service. Guess we should've went more times there because Kathie and I were very naughty together, lol, our junior and senior years (together with our other partner in crime, Lisa Rosenbaum). We (probably me more than them) skipped school more than we attended (sorry, Kathie's mom), hung out at Dunkin Donuts, drinking coffee and smoking cigarettes or at Worcester Public Library or at Papa Ginos in Worcester Center Galleria, with those Trade Boys and getting kicked out because we were too rowdy! When I reminded Kathie about this not that long ago, she laughed (I have that laugh memorized) and said that was so long ago and she is such a different person now. Although our lives went in different directions after high school, we found our way back together through Facebook and enjoyed a beautiful friendship built on mutual respect and sisterly love for one another, although we shared different ideas about different things. Kathie is the first person I contacted when I needed a prayer chain started and I have almost messaged her soooo many times these last few days to ask her for prayers or to tell her something. I know that so many have done the same. So, Kathie, I will continue to talk to you as if you are there listening to me, because in my heart and in the hearts of so many, you ARE there and always will be! Sincerest sympathy to Kathie's family and friends (human and furry)! God Bless!

“ We met through DBAR, and sometimes butted heads, but Kath became a wonderful friend. She provided advice and stories as I began to raise my son, she was one of the first on my prayer chain lists, and she was a wonderful go to for all medical things dog that come up at odd hours! Her crafting skills were amazing and I cherish the hats she made for me and the lovies she made for James. I miss her daily devotional posts, and I miss knowing she is just a message or call away.

“ Where do I start? There are so many memories! Sharing Funny Bones and Dr. Pepper while watching The Westminster Dog Show, making gruel for 12 puppies always started with "Time to make the doughnuts!" , Lair parties(always epic!) Fire and Ice Schnapps(maybe that night wasn't as epic as the rest...), so many great times, a few not so great times too. Kath was always there, always ready to help, to teach, to laugh or cry. We hadn't seen each other in years but I knew I just had to reach out and she'd be there for me. This world is a little less without her but heaven is a whole lot more now that she has made her entrance. I miss you my friend, I always will.

“ I've known Kath for over eleven years. We both joined a knitting group to learn to knit lace. We became fast friends, partners in craziness, prayer partners and yarn enablers. Kath was one of the smartest women I've ever known, she saved me a lot of time, forget Wikipedia, just ask Kath. I still feel like this is a bad Tim joke, but it's real and I hurt. I miss my pal. I'll see you in Heaven one day and we'll pick up where we left off. Linda Huff aka Babybat

“ Kath has been a good friend to me for 23+ years! Two weeks ago I found a thumb drive with pictures of my trip to Texas in 2000. I showed them to Kath and said "I have the one of you hugging me printed out and it's been on my china cabinet for years." She said "I have the one of me picking you up to throw you in the pool printed out!" We laughed at the memories! I've included these two pictures and a few others from 2000 in the photos section. I haven't seen Kath in person since 2001, but she has always been a daily part of my life and there is a big hole in my heart now and I miss her. Tim, Michael, Corey, I know this is one of the hardest things your family will have to face. I pray that your faith will get you through knowing that one day you will meet again.

“ I didn't know Kath long but I do know what a wonderful Christian woman she was. She and I became friends through our mutual love of handwork. I miss her very much but am assured it will only be a temporary separation. See you, Kath Baer, the world is a darker place without you here.

Kathie was my sister. Although we were not close I miss her. Rest In Peace and hold dad's hand while the family mourns your loss. Until we meet again I love you 💕

Kath was a precious friend and the iron that sharpened me. She saved me so many times after my husband died. She always gave me the Word and straight answers when we talked. I'm still in shock that she's gone. Whether rescuing animals, knitting, or studying the word she did them with all her heart. We shared so many tears and many laughs. I will miss her more than words can express.

There are so many wonderful qualities and levels to Kath, she was inclusive, compassionate, funny and fiery all in one teeny tiny package. We were chalk n cheese, making no difference to either of us. To me she is only gone in the human form, but never in spirit. A woman of huge love for Tim, her family, rescues and her faith in God. Vale, Ms Kath, until we meet again.xo
