

Kevan Darlow Fuchs

November 21, 1957 - June 24, 2016

Kevan Darlow Fuchs, 58, departed this life for his heavenly home on Friday (June 24, 2016) at his residence in Midland, TX. He was born in Clovis, NM on November 21, 1957, the fourth of seven children to Clayton Darlow and Aelinda (Watts) Fuchs.

Kevan was a faithful member of the Lord's Church, having been a baptized believer since the age of 12. He was raised attending the 16th and Pile Church of Christ in Clovis, but had attended Golf Course Road Church of Christ in Midland for most of his adult life.

Kevan was a loving husband and father, having met his bride-to-be, Pamela Lynn Arnett, while studying at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, NM. The two were married on May 15, 1982, in Roswell, NM, and were blessed with three incredible kids.

Kevan was a successful achiever. He worked the past 34 years for Halliburton Oilfield Services as a systems analyst, but his real passion was for the outdoors. He was an avid hiker, camper, and traveler, and was no stranger to the summit of a mountain. He could also be found enjoying a good card game, puzzle, or movie with his family.

Kevan is survived by his wife; two daughters and sons-in-laws, Kayla and

Michael Ward (Wichita, KS) and Jessica and Jacob Hinz (Fort Worth); son Devan Fuchs (Houston); two brothers, Keith Fuchs (Seattle, WA), and Kelby Fuchs (Carlsbad, CA); three sisters, Darice Webb (Temple, TX), Katrina Ward (Moore, OK), and Melinda Weast (Artesia, NM); two grandchildren, Lyla and Liam Ward (Wichita, KS); and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Roxie Jackson; and niece Marquise Weast.

A viewing will be held on Monday, June 27, 2016 between 1:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. at American Heritage Cemetery/Funeral Home/Crematory, 4100 N. FM-1788, Midland, Texas, 79707. A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, June 28, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. at Golf Course Road Church of Christ, officiated by Tim Baugh.

“ The Clubhouse

*Kevan Fuchs died today in his sleep
In a similar way as his father of one
And actually, also my father did too
Of those bitter, big cancer scourges
Which always come in unexpected
In this short enough life, a bit early*

*I've known him ever since first, when
We were knee high to Dad's shotgun
Throughout our small neighborhood
We would all roam to see and look
For horny toads and such other fun
Without any known end in our sights*

*We often, came all together, at once
In his parent's, little Clovis back yard
In the under ground, in our deep dug
Wild little clubhouse of our new pride
Approved by our jealous Dad's stare
Made all by ourselves, with great care*

*Eight by eight, with three feet of deep
Shagged carpet floors, walls around
And places to hide stuff with those
Sexy magazines we wished to remain
Unseen by our parents, although they
Surely lived through similar wild times*

*Black lights , fluorescent mod posters
Fans to cool, while there in the deep
Kept the place comfy, from several
Hot summers in New Mexico's heat
Staying nights over, in conspiracy we Came colluding, while hoping no fame*

*This place was our place, of known
Refuge from all of the big crazy, with
Frightening world still yet to come
Giving us our youngest freedoms
And also so much being in trouble
As kinda neighborhood hoodlums*

*Far up his Dad's, tall, two-way radio tower
One of us in care would climb
With binoculars to see the dark night
With our pair of walkie talkies held
Warn the others, carousing around
Of any plight, in appearing headlights*

*Kevan's brother, still alive, Keith
My other brother by another, Buddy
Also at first, a weird guy, named Chris
One other member, as second cousin
Who actually, was my very first kiss
When it was hard to aim, lips to miss*

*All bound as one, by made up signs
And part of something called PSO
Which, if you don't know well, what it
Truly means, then you were definitely
Not a part of the so very high bliss
Which we suffered through so often*

*Kevan's true nature is clearly proven
Finally, most completely, at his end
In the nature of his wonderful loving
All his family, who also so loved him
And all those other parties to trouble
Who also so loved, really all of him*

“ Kevan had two other brothers; Buddy Hughes and Jimmy Davis. Although having other mothers and fathers, we got raised together like brothers. More than just friends! Learned life together and influenced each other to live good lives! Our families reflect those lives. Like looking in a mirror, Kevan's wonderful family is his remaining reflection of his time on earth!
