“ The funniest memory I have of the 2 of us was back in the 6th grade. We were partners for a science project. And i went to your apartment and we were in the kitchen getting down to business. We had sat a notebook on the gas stove. i believe you had a great Dane or some sort of bigger dog at that time and he/she came in all happy and crazy and had jumped up and turned on the burner without us knowing and before we knew it we were putting out a small fire of the notebook while laughing our butts off...One of the last times I saw you was in the 10th grade, Eric U. and I had gone to your house to hang out a bit. I even have a picture from that day somewhere I just don't know where to look. I'm so glad that I have that picture engraved in my memory because now the both of you are gone....BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN...I'm so heartbroken

Kristi Dawn, I will miss you so much. I will miss watching your family live life and grow old with one another. Like Grant said, y'all had the Storybook Love Story. He was your person and you were his. I know how happy he made you, I could see it written all over your face. I'm so glad that he was there to take care of you since day 1. You fought the fight with everything you had. God needed you more. I take comfort in knowing that you are with him and in a much better place free of pain. Your Family will always be in my thoughts and prayers, I know that they will miss you dearly but rest assured that they will all get each other through this day by day.

Until we meet again, I love you Kristi Dawn.

Love-Alethia Dawn XOXOXO

P.S. I hope I'm writing on the right page, the above mentioned Birthday says you were 103...HAHAHA Rest Easy Babe
