

Larry Kenneth Wilson

November 9, 1944 - July 19, 2022

Larry K. Wilson passed on July 19, 2022 after battling Alzheimer's disease. Larry was born on November 9, 1944 in McMinnville, Oregon to Albert Walter Wilson and Anna Alois "Lois" (Bunch) Wilson. Larry had one older sister, Joetta Barker, and one younger brother, Ronald Wilson. Larry's parents and siblings preceded him in death.

Larry grew up on his family's turkey farm in Perrydale, Oregon. He married Carolyn Sue Halstead on April 2, 1966 in Yuba City, California. They had one daughter, Marcy Lynn Taylor (Elizabeth), and two grandchildren, Tristan Thomas Taylor and Tarrah Lynn Taylor. Larry served in the U.S Air Force during the Vietnam War and was stationed in Italy. He was married to Carolyn for 32 years until her passing in 1998.

Larry married Anna (Marberry) Wilson on January 1, 1999 in Midland, Texas where he joined Anna's family and children, Dennis Polson (Raquel), Wynona Elich, and Lanona Weber (Steve); grandchildren, Taylor Polson, Dillon Polson, Jamie Polson, Bailey Thrasher, Michelle Griggs, Justin McMann, and Lindsey Elich; and great-grandchildren, Ariel Medina, Piper Silvestre, and Lacey Thrasher.

Upon returning from the service, Larry went on to have a successful career in the trucking industry, working in Oregon, Arizona, and Texas, before he retired in 2019. Larry enjoyed camping and woodworking. He was passionate about boating and fishing and taking care of foster kittens.

“ Anna , sorry to hear about Larry, A memory is when in High School we put his dad's camper on my dad's pickup and we and Gordon went to South Twin Lake fishing and camping. Some how it ended off the road leaning against a tree. Had to get a tow truck from Bend to pull us out. Larry was a very good friend e did several things together. Delbert Domes
