“ I've tried to find the appropriate words to say five or six times now, I start, erase and try again. It just seems so wrong that someone so young, with so much to live for is taken to soon. I think of the happy child I knew at Springhill Elementary, slightly mischievous, ever thoughtful, whose face was always lit up with that bright smile; bittersweet memories of yesterday's gone be. My condolences to all in the Dunlap family, I know your hearts are hurting.
