“ One of my very favorite memories is that of my bro. Being about three or, four years old and at the time we were attending the Old St. James baptist church. He still loved to carry his baby bottle around and he would always leave it in the offering table on Sunday morning. Everyone knew it was his bottle. He would be dressed in a suit but he would boldly walk up to retrieve his bottle when he missed. The church would always laugh because he would go get it.
In love
