

Lee Roy Adams

August 13, 1935 - January 9, 2016

Lee Roy “Blackie” Adams, 80, of Midland, Texas, was born in McAllister, Oklahoma on August 13, 1935. He passed away in Midland, on Saturday, January 9, 2016.

Lee sold heating, air conditioning and plumbing supplies. In his words, he “sold potties”.

He was a Nascar fan, as Dale Jr. was his favorite driver. As a Tech fan, he enjoyed watching football and sometimes basketball, as well. After he retired, he had the pleasure of traveling in his R.V., and going to family reunions in Oklahoma. The pictures of his great nephew, Evan, smiling are what made him smile the most.

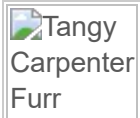

He is survived by his spouse of 37 years of marriage, Ann Adams of Midland, Texas; one son, Tony Adams of Lubbock, Texas; one daughter, Laura Adams of Kilgore, Texas; one brother, P. E. Adams, Jr. of Slaton, Texas; one grandchild and his beloved dog, Peanut.

He is preceded in death by his son, Scott Adams of Lubbock, Texas; brother, Richard Adams of Lubbock, Texas; sister LaWana Cox of Lubbock, Texas.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Arrangements are entrusted to American Heritage Cemetery & Funeral Home,
4100 N. FM-1788, Midland, Texas, 79707.

“ I'm pretty sure Lee Roy saved my little brother's life. Mom tells the story that she and I were at your house about a month after Roger was born. You were already in school . Lee Roy came home for lunch, and said, "How's that baby boy doing?" Mother froze the screamed, "Oh my God, I left him asleep in his crib!!" She snatched me up, and drove like a bat out of hell back home, only to find my baby brother safely asleep in his crib. Funny in retrospect but scary at the time. Loved your daddy!

Condolences to you, Ann and Tony.
