

Maria Acosta Gonzalez

August 16, 1924 - January 5, 2024

Maria Acosta Gonzalez, 99 years old of Odessa, passed away on January 5th 2024, in Odessa, Tx. She was born in Arroyo Miguel Chiquito, Chihuahua, Cuauhtemoc on August 16, 1924 to Gabriel Acosta and Andrea Cisneros.

She had very little schooling but taught herself to read and write. She later met and married Raymundo Gonzalez in 1946 and they were married for over 67 years. She is a member of the congregation of Jehova's witnesses.

Those who knew Maria can tell you she was a loving, kind, gentle woman, and never turned a stranger in need away. She enjoyed her garden and flowers gave her great joy. She spent the last few years of her life with one of her eldest daughters and they would enjoy sitting outside together enjoying each other's company. She was a great cook, and enjoyed crocheting blankets and hats to give away. But she will be most remembered by how loving she was with every one of us.

Those left to cherish her memory are son Gonzalo Gonzalez and wife; daughters, Lourdes Anchondo and husband, Virginia Quintanilla, Blanca Lizalde and husband, Minerva Gonzalez and husband, Sara Lizalde and husband, and many, many grand children, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Maria is preceded in death by her parents, husband, and sons, Rodolfo and Cesar Gonzalez.

A Memorial Service will be held on January 11, 2024, 10:00 AM at American Heritage Funeral Home.

A gathering of friends and loved ones will be held after the service at 412 10th St. Suit D in Odessa.
