“ Oh my cuz how I miss all the times we shared growing up together we each took different paths but everytime we got together we had a blast remembering the times growing up but now our Lord has taken you and for all eternity you are in a place that for now you are not suffering in you're finial moments only you and God know what kind of pain you were going thru and in the last moment on you're last breath I only say and hope that you're last words were Lord forgive me I accept you as My Lord
You are not here in person any longer but you will always be in our Hearts
