“ As the years go by, we begin to lose our family members and friends. I had wondered about Mary and her brother Dewey, and today's Gatesville Messenger carried Dewey's obituary. We were so sorry to hear about his death, and had not heard about Mary. As Rogers cousins we were blessed to see each other locally and at family reunions, with my brother Charles hanging out with Dewey and with Roger Hestilow, and Mary and I hanging out together. We remember enjoying the wonderful home cooked foods, and seeing all our aunts and uncles as well as our cousins. But time does pass on, and it leaves us with good memories. We're so sorry for Mary's loss, and we hope you find peace and comfort as time passes.
