“ My favorite memories of Heath are when he ran out of his flip flop after lighting the fireworks and slipping to the ground. He covered his head like he was gonna explode! Lol the look on his face was hilarious! The second is when we went to Dave and Busters after my back surgery. I couldn't bend over so he helped me win all the games! It was such a fun night! He taught me how to do so much! Like how to drive a car at 11 on the backroads! 🍷 I miss you and will always keep the memories! Love, Kenzie

“ It doesn't even seem real that he could be gone. I don't know in a way he almost seemed invincible. We had so many amazing memories and I'm so glad the girls and I got to know the person inside that not alot of people got to meet. He had a beautiful heart and wanted to help any time he could. Rest easy sweet boy! I know your mind is finally at peace and you are loving the after life with your Granny and Pawpaw and exploring every inch of heaven with Strawberry! 🐾 I know things are more interesting up there now! You will forever hold a place in our hearts.

“ Heath and I were together a very long time. In the ups and downs he has always held a special place in my heart. Even though I do cry for him being gone I know he is at peace now from all the hurt he carried in his heart. He was so full of life we hold so many quirky memories. From fishing out snakes at his moms and running for our lives, to paddling out water on a sinking boat during a thunderstorm. Playing chicken with a golf cart and winning the lottery and abandoning our crappy car on the side of the road and hitch hiking to cash in our winnings. Even though we can not see him or hear him, he is with us all watching over us.

“ Heath and I grew up together. We share lots of memories, laughter, and good times. Even though life lead us down different paths, it was as if no time was lost when we would talk to each other. He was my brother and I never thought anything differently! It's so unbelievable that I won't see him around the house anymore. Rest in paradise Heath, I have complete Faith that we will all be together as family again one day!! You'll be missed until then...
