

Michael Jerome Vollmers

April 27, 1945 - April 17, 2025

Michael Jerome Vollmers, 79, of Midland, Texas, passed away peacefully on April 17, 2025, at Midland Memorial Hospital, just days shy of his 80th birthday.

Born on April 27, 1945, in Carrington, North Dakota, to Ralph and Faye Vollmers, Michael carried a spark and spirit that lit up every room he entered. A man full of life, laughter, and an unmistakable twinkle in his eye, he was well-known for his quick wit, love of teasing, and a sense of humor that made even strangers feel like old friends.

Michael married the love of his life, Rose Casella Vollmers, on August 17, 1968, in Las Vegas, Nevada. Their 57 years of marriage were built on partnership, devotion, and a shared love of life's adventures-including his fondness for gambling and the joy of taking a chance, both in the casino and in life.

He was a proud father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, never shy to declare, "I'm the dad!"-a phrase that brought both laughter and comfort to those who knew him best. If you ever asked too many questions, you'd likely hear his classic quip: "Why, are you writing a book?" His charm, resilience, and unshakable love for his family defined him.

Michael is survived by his devoted wife, Rose Casella Vollmers; daughters, Melissa Saliu (Anthony, son-in-law) and Michelle Vollmers; granddaughters, Richele Flournoy and Andrea "Chipster" Flournoy; great-granddaughters, Nakilan Hearst and Kureesa "Midnight" White; great-grandson, Lincoln

"Penny" Flournoy; and in-laws, Anthony Perley and Tammie Newbold (David). He is reunited in rest with his beloved granddaughter, Kendra Nicole Vollmers, whose memory he cherished.

Michael worked hard his entire life and played just as hard. He loved his family fiercely, laughed often, and lived fully. His memory will live on in every joke shared, every story told, and every heart he touched.

Tribute Wall

“ A Memorial Tree was planted in honor of Michael Jerome Vollmers.

---

April 21, 2025 at 08:10 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Michael Jerome Vollmers.

---

April 21, 2025 at 08:10 PM