November 1, 1969 - August 18, 2025

Miguel Angel Terrazas Quezada, 55, of Odessa, Texas, passed away on August 18, 2025, at Covenant Medical Center in Lubbock, Texas.

Born on November 1, 1969, in San Jose del Sitio Satevo, Chihuahua, Mexico, Miguel was the beloved son of Elias Terrazas Prieto and Maria Teresa Quezada Chacon. He married the love of his life, Imelda Patricia Flores Cano, and together they built a home filled with love, laughter, and dedication to their family.

A devoted husband and father, Miguel was a man who worked hard, loved deeply, and lived with great heart. Known affectionately by his nickname "Carne Seca"-a nod to his well-known tradition of selling beef jerky-Miguel brought joy to those around him not only with his humor but also with his warm spirit and generous nature.

Miguel had a deep love for horses, and that passion was a constant presence in his life. Whether spending time outdoors or sharing stories with loved ones, he embraced life's simple pleasures and passed that appreciation on to his children.

He is survived by his wife, Imelda Patricia Flores Cano; his children, Miguel Angel Terrazas Flores, Tere Leticia Terrazas Flores, and Diana Terrazas; and seven siblings: Manuel Marinelarena, Nela Terrazas, Victor Manuel Terrazas, Jesus Elias Terrazas, Ana Terrazas, Dolores Terrazas, and Claudio Hermosillo.

Miguel was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Angelina Terrazas.

His presence will be deeply missed, but the memories he created and the love he shared will remain with his family and friends forever.

A viewing will take place on Monday from 2:00 PM to 8:00 PM at American Heritage Funeral Home, with a rosary service from 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM.
