

Nancy Jane Whitaker-Martin

February 11, 1949 - September 29, 2024

Nancy Jane Whitaker-Martin, 75, of Midland, Texas, passed away peacefully on September 29, 2024. She was born on February 11, 1949, to William and Elna Beatrice Whitaker in Travis County, Texas.

Nancy earned a Master's degree in Educational Counseling from the University of Texas Permian Basin (UTPB). Though her professional journey kept her within the home, she cherished her education and was a source of wisdom and guidance to those around her.

On July 27, 1998, she married the love of her life, Robert David Martin, in Midland, where they built a life together. A kind and nurturing soul, Nancy found joy in her love for animals, particularly her two cherished cats, Tiger and Spot, who were her constant companions.

Nancy's love for reading and solving puzzles reflected her sharp intellect and quiet curiosity about the world. Her thoughtful and gentle presence enriched the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is preceded in death by her parents, William and Elna Beatrice Whitaker, and her beloved husband, Robert Martin.

Nancy is survived by her niece, Kedron Huggins; her nephews, James Huggins, John B. Huggins, and Michael Wayne Gillis; as well as her great-niece and great-nephews. Her family and friends will always cherish her memory, and she will be deeply missed.
