“ I loved that I was able to spend the last couple of weeks with you mami! The sleepover sis Christina and I had with you in the hospital was priceless! You slept through the night so peacefully, that's how I still see you now! Nothing has changed. All is well. You were an extraordinary women, who loved us unconditionally! I'm so proud to have you in my life. Gone but not forgotten mami, you've only gone into the next room. I love you!

“ *My mother-in-law was a beautiful, loving women. She loved bingo, football and Pepsi. She would play games on her tablet for hours. I lost my mom in 2006 and I thought I would never have another mother in my life. I thank God for giving me such a wonderful person I could call mom. You will forever be in my heart. I love you!
