“ I remembered I went with my sister and Hamm to visit Nola many years ago and we stayed in her home for a day or two. When I went to bed the first night I over heard Nola telling my sister and Hamm about how she couldn't eat spicy food before going to bed because she would have nightmares and it would usually be about the chicly doll. She then said something like, "I'm serious, he would be standing over me with all that crazy blonde hair" and from the other room I yelled out, "chucky has red hair!" Then there was a pause that lasted a few seconds and she screamed "SHUT UP AND GO TO BED!" Haha ms Nola had such a great sense of humor and the few times I was able to be around her she brought me great joy. She was in my prayers through out her fight with cancer but she is not defeated! She fought a great fight and now she is Home with our Lord in Peace! We will always miss you Nola but one day we will all be together again

With your mercy and love.
In this world she has died:

Through Christ our Lord.
