

Patricia Ann Biver

July 10, 1957 - December 7, 2023

It is with deep sadness that we share the passing of Patricia Ann Hall Biver, fondly known as "Trish," who passed away on December 7, 2023, at the age of 66 in Midland, Texas. Trish, born on July 10, 1957, in Stephenville, Texas, faced early challenges with the loss of her father but found strength in her step-father, Jessie Green.

Her life journey included schools in Midland and Mansfield, Texas, where she built cherished memories and lasting relationships. Trish experienced both love and loss, having lost her husband, Mike Villalba, brothers David and Tommy Green, sister Paula Green, and her parents. Despite these losses, Trish remained resilient and warm-hearted.

She is survived by her sister, Debby Vincent, and husband Robert; brother, Curtis Green, and wife Linda; aunts from Desdemona and Cisco, Texas; numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends. Trish's life was brightened by her faithful cat, Chester.

Following Trish's wishes, there will be no funeral services. Instead, a graveside service will be held later at Howard Cemetery in Desdemona,

Texas. Trish will rest among her ancestors. Though her departure leaves a void, her spirit of resilience, warmth, and love will remain an enduring inspiration.

The family suggests donations to a charity of choice in Trish's memory, celebrating a life well-lived. Rest in peace, dear Trish; your memory will forever light our lives.
