June 2, 1958 - December 10, 2014

Patricia (Patty) Duke Mahony passed from this world into the loving arms of her savior on December 10, 2014. After enduring a 12 year long battle with a sickness in body, she has received her healing in heaven. She passed away peacefully at Midland Memorial Hospital surrounded by those she loved.

She was born June 2, 1958 in Andrews County, Texas to Ada and Bob Duke.

Patty was an exceptional event planner and there was never a party too large or small that she failed to plan to perfection. She was an excellent cook whose culinary capabilities ranged from the most basic to gourmet dishes. She loved to decorate and she loved the holidays, especially Christmas!

All that had the opportunity to know Patty experienced her sharp wit and loving charm. She was known to be down to earth and spiritual, never having a negative thing to say about anyone she met. Patty was very kind, and generous, often giving of herself. She possessed an old soul.

She was an active member in the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Midland. She loved to participate in church functions whenever she could.

Patty almost completed her BA in English at West Texas, where she also received her Masters in Business.

She is preceded in death by the love of her life, Kevin Mahony; her much beloved father, Bob Duke; and golden retriever, Abbey. She is survived by her mother, Ada Duke of Midland; sister and husband, Jennifer and John Linton of Midland; nephews, Chris and wife Debbie Duke of Midland, niece and nephew, Stoney and Stormey Slate, Michael and wife Stacy Duke of Midland; two great nephews, Gunner and Chase Duke, as well as many beloved friends.

Patty was very loved by her family, friends and those who had the opportunity to make her acquaintance. Although her life was cut too short, she indeed filled the time she had living life to the fullest. She will be missed by all.

A memorial service will be held Sunday the 21st at 2:00pm at the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Midland, 3114 Travis Ave with a gathering of friends and family to follow.
