“ Polina and I met in 2013. We hit it off right away and knew it was going to be a great friendship. She called one day and left a message, asking if I could get her a gig in Southern Maryland and that we could make a night of it and catch up - and for whatever reason was going on, I did not put that together. We lost touch after that, and it has haunted me to this day, as I still have her voicemail on my phone as a cherished memory. I could not believe what eventually transpired and all I can say is that i miss her, wish I had made better choices, and wish I could hear her voice again - in person, although we're all lucky that we have the recordings to remember our love for a beautiful soul. Polina, if you are looking down from above and reading what people write here about you, please know that I miss you and how I wish we could go back and have that time together. You will always be in my mind, and will always be special to me. Love, James
