Have a good rest my love. Although our lives are at best when we are with you, Prapan, you deserve a good rest; so, have it my love. Until the last breath, you have been the best father and best husband. We thank you for coming into and being the light of our lives. Your love and care are always the best source of strength for us and we are always thankful because you have been who you are and everything is OK when we have you. We miss the sound of your conversation and appreciate your resourceful words of advice, support, wisdom, and insight. You maxed out not only as a student but as a father and husband. We wish you were still here with us. You are home to us and we are terribly homesick without you. We couldn't imagine how miserable we feel right now, but we are assured that one day these tears will turn to laughter when you, Prapan, come back with the Lord.

Prapan is survived by his wife, Nuetip, son, Paul, and granddaughter, Prayer. He is also survived by his sisters Punjit, Munjit, Duangjit.

A funeral service will be held on Monday, January 20, at 6:00 PM at Odessa Seventh-day Adventist Church in Odessa, Texas, with a reception to follow. Arrangements by American Heritage Cemetery | Funeral Home | Crematory.
