With heavy hearts, we bid farewell to our beloved Quinn Ace Brown, who passed away on March 28, 2024, at his home in Midland, Texas, at the tender age of 14. Quinn's departure has left a void in our lives that can never be filled, but his memory will forever remain etched in our hearts.

Quinn came into this world on November 1, 2009, a precious gift to his mother, Lashay, in Albuquerque, New Mexico. From the moment he entered our lives, his vibrant spirit illuminated every corner of our existence.

In his short time with us, Quinn exemplified qualities that touched the lives of all who knew him. Incredibly smart and tech-savvy beyond his years, Quinn had a knack for understanding the complexities of the world around him. But it wasn't just his intelligence that endeared him to others; it was his boundless love and compassion that truly set him apart.

Quinn had a heart as vast as the Texas sky, overflowing with love for everyone he encountered. His kindness knew no bounds, and he had a special affinity for animals, always showering them with affection and care. Whether it was lending a helping hand or offering a comforting shoulder to lean on, Quinn's compassionate nature knew no limits.

Despite his tender age, Quinn displayed remarkable resilience and determination. He approached life with a tenacity that belied his years, never shying away from hard work or challenges. His love for adventure led him to pursuits like bull riding, shooting, and hunting, where he thrived amidst the thrill of the outdoors; he was tough as nails.

Quinn's family meant the world to him, and he cherished every moment spent with his parents, siblings, and grandparents. He leaves behind a legacy of love and warmth that will continue to inspire us all.

Left to mourn the loss of Quinn, are his parents, parents, Lashay and Ty Constant; sister, Kimber Constant; grandparents: David Gallegos (Vickie), Shelly Lee Constant, and Roberta Kay Fredlund, John Constant (Laura), Douglas Lee (Mavis), and great-grandmother, Rosalee Miller; as well as numerous other loving family members and friends.

Let us remember the joy he brought into our lives and the indelible mark he left on our hearts. Though he may no longer be with us in body, his spirit will forever live on in the memories we hold dear.

In this time of sorrow, let us find solace in the knowledge that Quinn's love will continue to guide and comfort us, lighting our way through the darkness. May he rest in peace, knowing that he was cherished beyond measure and will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Quinn, your light will never fade, and your legacy will endure for eternity. Until we meet again, may you find eternal peace in the embrace of angels.
