“ Teresa,
I meet you years ago at Spratley Jr High and spent a lot of time playing basketball with you! I got to know your family and grew to love your you father, he was such a wonderful man. I am so sorry for your loss. It was a shock to me to see you had lost your husband. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this very difficult time! The Lord will see you though this ... Stay strong!! #GodBlessYou!!

“ I remember when we first met and your smile and I looked Tereasa I saw that your presence made her heart smile and that made me happy that she had met someone wonder to share her life with. Thank you for that Rodney. Talk to Gid and ask He could make it so she continues to feel your presence so that at this time while her face is sadden at least her heart will find moments to smile. God bless you man

“ Teresa, my friend....I knew Rodney thru you and it was so thrilling to know you had found the man, YOUR MAN, who you could settle down with, grow old with and be happy! My heart is heavier than heavy in realizing that he is no longer physically in your life. I've often heard "things happen for a reason".....well I don't know why this happen, but I sincerely take comfort and pleasure in knowing you had several years to spend with your beloved. I look forward to our next meeting, but in the meantime, please know my thoughts and heart are with you now, always, and I extend full arms to hug you and share in your grief during this time. I love you sister girl!

“ Teresa,

I can't even remember when we first met. From that day on, you have always been a special friend and encouraged me at the times I needed it the most. As we talked the other day, just take it day by day and pray incessantly. Your healing will start slowly and continue to grow.

I love you and I always will.
