Rosalie Jane Brown, 86, of Odessa, Texas, passed away peacefully at her home on November 2, 2024. Born on August 16, 1938, in Wink, Texas, Rosalie was the beloved daughter of Patrick and Doratha Heckman. She married her lifelong partner, Richard Earl Brown, on May 26, 1956, in Kermit, Texas, and together they built a remarkable life filled with love, faith, and devotion.

A devoted wife for 68 years, Rosalie was the heart of her family, exemplifying steadfast love and warmth. She is survived by her husband, Richard Earl Brown of Odessa; her three children, Paul Alan Brown (Abigail), Sherry Brown Warren (Don), and Richard W. Brown (Cindy Delgado); five grandchildren, Megan, Wesley, Melinda, Chase, and Charles; and seven great-grandchildren, Haley, Mason, Ian, Evelyn, Emily, Eli, and Gavin. Her family will forever cherish the love, guidance, and joy she brought into their lives.

Rosalie's life was marked by her faith and dedication to Sherwood Baptist Church, where she was a faithful member since 1978. Her faith was an anchor in her life, and her church community was a source of deep friendship and fellowship. Rosalie had a gift for music and was a talented singer and pianist.

Rosalie also had a zest for life and many hobbies that filled her days with joy and meaning. She was an avid bowler, competing in leagues across Midland and Odessa and even participating in national tournaments. A skilled seamstress, she lovingly sewed clothes for her children when they were young, a testament to her creativity and care. She had a special love for travel, savoring each new place she visited, and found joy in the companionship of her beloved cats.

Above all, Rosalie was a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother whose family was her pride and joy. Her legacy lives on in the love and memories she leaves behind.

A viewing will be held on Wednesday, November 6, at American Heritage Funeral Home from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. The funeral service will take place on Thursday, November 7, at 10:00 a.m. at Sherwood Baptist Church in Odessa, Texas followed by burial at American Heritage Cemetery.
